

A Bottle a Day Will Keep Old Age Away
He who drinks
Evanc

A1a

—

There's a store of wealth and more of health in every drop you drink.
Order supply for home use. Grocers & Dealers.

While waiting for the appearance of Hedges at the Cooper Union mass meeting, at which a great crowd began to gather as early as 6:30 o'clock, to stand in the cold in a long line for an hour before the doors were opened, the voters were addressed by former Senator Chauncey M. Depew. Senator Elihu Root was to preside, but was absent to attend Vice-President Sherman's funeral. Mr. Depew paid a touching tribute to the dead Vice-President's memory that found a responsive chord in the hearts of the audience.

Mr. Depew also spoke of Colonel Roosevelt's bolting from the Republican party, declaring that the only reason was that Taft had received the nomination.

After five minutes of tumult, in which the audience which packed the auditorium and two brass bands vied with each other in creating a racket,

Mr. Hedges succeeded in making himself heard.

His opening remarks were characteristic and had drawn half a dozen laughs from the audience when a man seated near the centre of the hall arose and stated loudly that he would like to ask a few questions.

Many persons in the audience liked and admonished the ushers to "throw him out." Mr. Hedges, however, raised

Two Questions Answered.

"The first question is, Don't you owe your nomination to Mr. Barnes? The second, What will you do if you find an incompetent city official? Will you do what Charles E. Hughes did, remove him, or, like Commissioner Waldo and Mayor Gaynor in this city, will you sit down and crack jokes?"

The temper of the audience was against questions, but Mr. Hughes called for silence and, stating that he was glad the questions had been asked and were of a nature that any one might ask if they were seriously meant, replied to both.

"I owe my nomination to nobody," he declared, "but to the majority of the delegates at the Republican conven-

In reply to the second question he said, in part:

"If, when I become Governor, the laws that I am charged with the enforcement of, are not being enforced and human life in the City of New York, for instance, is in jeopardy. I will remove anybody charged with the non-enforcement of those laws.

"And answering you in the spirit of good faith that I assume you asked the question, I want to tell you that there will be no single official act I will perform for the purpose of creating an effect upon the public mind, and nothing so serious that I will dodge to dodge the public mind."

Either these replies gave satisfaction or the man deemed it unwise to press the speaker further, for many in the audience have him thrown out—and Mr. Hedges concluded his address uninterrupted.

HEDGES SPEAKS MONDAY

Plans Final Whirlwind Tour of Manhattan and The Bronx.

Job E. Hedges, Republican candidate for Governor, will speak right up to the opening of Election Day. He will close his campaign to-morrow night with a whirlwind tour through Manhattan and The Bronx.

To-morrow morning Mr. Hughes will go up to Fishkill, where he will speak at noon. He will speak at Kingston in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

In the evening he is booked to speak at a great open air meeting at Abingdon Square, in Greenwich Village, and also at the following places: Old Young Men's Christian Association Building, McKinley Square, 169th street and Boston Road; Camp Taft, No. 380 East 149th street; Furman's Hall, Prospect avenue, near Westchester avenue, and Camp Hedges, 145th street and Willis avenue.

kel 2

McKel & Co.
Avenue
Manufacturing
riers

complete satisfac-
most carefully se-

the finest work-

th Avenue
ts. Tel. 2044 Greeley